

POSITION: Program Co-ordinator
REPORTS TO: Team Leader Community Development and Youth Participation
DATE CREATED: June 2021

ORGANISATIONAL ENVIRONMENT

Melbourne City Mission (MCM) is a leader and innovator in the provision of services to the community. Established in 1854, Melbourne City Mission is a diverse community support organisation that supports thousands of Victorian people and communities to overcome barriers and disrupt disadvantage to live their life, their way.

As a service provider Melbourne City Mission's work is focussed on supporting people to take charge of their own lives and participate fully in community life. Melbourne City Mission's service profile includes: Children, Youth, Adult and Family; Disability; Employment, Education and Training; Homelessness; Justice; and Palliative Care. Our Healing Oriented Framework guides us in our trauma informed knowledge to enhance trauma responsiveness across all programs and deepens the capacity of teams and services in complex environments to provide healing oriented care.

As a social change agent Melbourne City Mission advocates for social policy change and works across all sectors in seeking to achieve sustainable outcomes for communities experiencing disadvantage.

JOB CONTEXT

The Homelessness, Justice & Family Services division supports people experiencing, or at risk of homelessness, people involved in the justice system and families at risk of poorer outcomes and progression to greater forms of disadvantage. The division provides a range of services aimed to prevent or reduce the impacts of homelessness, incarceration, and family cycles of disadvantage through provision of evidence based, high quality, effective interventions.

The Homelessness, Justice & Family Services division consists of five conceptual domains:

- Accommodation;
- Youth and Family Homelessness;
- Frontyard Youth Services;
- Justice; and,
- Family Services.

Frontyard Youth Services is a specialist youth service providing a range of multidisciplinary programs to meet the holistic needs of young people aged between 12 and 25 years who are experiencing homelessness. Frontyard aims to support young people to meet their physical, emotional and social needs and to develop pathways out of homelessness. Many of the services at Frontyard work with young people across greater Melbourne and throughout Victoria.

Frontyard's support model includes a suite of primary and allied health, specialist housing, assertive outreach, therapeutic supports, early intervention & prevention services, legal, education and employment support.

Frontyard's program opportunities focus on three key themes:

Tools and Skills for Life: focusing on assisting young people to develop or build upon current skills to enable them to have the resources necessary to reach their goals and acquire and sustain long term housing. Health and Wellbeing: focuses on the ability to maintain positive health, both mind and body. Recreation, Sport and Hobbies: providing new experiences or re-connecting to something the young person loved doing in the past. This theme focuses on building a young person's ability to connect with new or previous interests, new social groups and activities that engage the mind and body.

JOB PURPOSE

To create, source, facilitate and review a suite of programs within Frontyard, principally in the accommodation program, providing a variety of experiences and learning opportunities for young people.

The role will oversee programs that aim to :

- Improve overall health and wellbeing
- Create new opportunities and learning
- Build communication and social skills
- Identify and build on personal strengths, preferences and aspirations
- Identify and build community and social connections
- Making choices about learning opportunities
- Promoting self-care, mutual support and responsibility

You will achieve this through ensuring that the programs cover the Frontyard identified life domains including housing, education, employment and training, living skills, finances, social, diversity, significant relationships, legal, health, psychosocial health and wellbeing, alcohol and other drugs and safety.

JOB OBJECTIVES

Duties of this role may include but are not limited to the following:

- Proactively engage with young people to develop a consistent and predictable timetable of programs that meets their goals and provides new opportunities.
- Development and facilitation or co-facilitation of programs/sessions targeting young people experiencing homelessness, both at Frontyard and across the broader metropolitan region.
- Experience in promoting a collaborative learning approach; creating practical, interactive and creative activities, with young people being able to reflect on their own experiences, creating opportunity for discussions in the group and the probability of peer learning.
- Sourcing and collaboratively working with internal and external providers to create a broad depth of program offerings to young people accessing Frontyard.
- Contribution to the evaluation and reporting requirements of the program.
- Effective planning and prioritising of workload.
- Participation in continuous quality improvement processes including facilitating and responding to feedback from young people and other stakeholders.
- Maintain accurate files, case notes and databases, using the relevant platforms and systems for the service.

- Collate information and prepare reports relating to program delivery and support Frontyard in publishing and promoting the role of programs in supporting a young persons autonomy and growth.
- Participate in meetings, debriefing, supervision, training, and forums. This may involve flexibility to attend outside usual working hours, as agreed with the Team Leader.
- Ensure services are delivered within the framework of MCM’s policies and procedures, legislative requirements, and meet the relevant service standards. All employees are required to comply with the Child Safe Standards.
- Perform other duties and responsibilities, as directed by the Team Leader, Operations Manager or delegate.
