

POSITION: Restart Practitioner
REPORTS TO: Restart Senior Practitioner
DATE CREATED: October 2022

ORGANISATIONAL ENVIRONMENT

MCM (Melbourne City Mission) is a leading community services organisation that innovatively works alongside thousands of Victorians and their communities to overcome barriers experienced through Homelessness, Early Years, Disability, Palliative care, Early Childhood Intervention Services and Education.

With deep experience working with communities experiencing disadvantage, MCM advocates for systemic change, working across all sectors to sustainably disrupt such disadvantage.

MCM is a Child safe organisation and child safety is at the forefront of our program delivery. Our guidelines ensure that Child Safety is a primary part of everyday thinking and practice. All employees and volunteers have an obligation to ensure we keep children safe from harm and abuse.

Since 1854, MCM has been striving for those experiencing disadvantage to live their life, their way.

JOB CONTEXT

The Restart Practitioner will be a member of the Restart Program and sit within the Youth Early Intervention and Homelessness portfolio (YEI&H). YEI&H provide innovative and responsive support to young people and families to address their immediate support needs to prevent their required engagement with child protection, youth justice and homelessness services. YEI&H consists of:

- Restart
- Detour
- Western Reconnect
- Finding Solutions
- Creating Connections
- Supportive Housing (Rough Sleeper initiative)

YEI&H also sits within the broader Youth and Family Services (Y&FS) portfolio within the Homelessness and Family Services Division of MCM.

JOB PURPOSE

MCM and CMY's Restart Program is a trauma-informed, healing-focused and flexible program designed to support young people using violence in the home to recognise the violence and adapt their behaviours; to deal with the triggers and reasons they are using violence; and support their family members to be safe. Restart recognises that the drivers of the use of family violence by young people is different to those of adults, and that young people require different approaches to managing this behaviour.

The Restart Program is structured to provide specialist expertise in the areas of multicultural communities and disability which are particular areas of need in the Brimbank Melton region. The service breadth and depth of the partner agencies means that we can support the specialist focus while also offering a broad-based program.

JOB OBJECTIVES

Duties of this role may include but are not limited to the following:

- Provide effective early intervention strategies for young people using family violence in the home and their families in partnership with CMY, collaboration with care teams and service providers.
- Provide effective case management utilising best practice principles whilst working with the young people we support to recognise the violence and adapt their behaviours; to deal with the triggers and reasons they are using violence; and support their family members to be safe
- Work collaboratively with The Orange Door, welfare and teaching staff in local schools, and community-based youth and family support services to identify and support young people using violence in the home
- Develop and maintain collaborative, effective, and integrated working relationships with other service providers and community agencies and provide advocacy where required.
- Maintain an up-to-date knowledge of multidisciplinary youth support programs including services that provide family mediation and therapy, mental health, AOD, legal and family violence responses to young people
- Support, develop and facilitate community engagement initiatives.
- Complete regular reporting, data collection, and record keeping.
- Participate in regular supervision, meetings, performance appraisals, and training as required.
- Participate in Melbourne metro and state-wide AVITH network meetings, as required
- Positively influence and contribute to a service and team culture that focusses on meeting the service goals using evidence informed practice and reflective practice.
- Commitment to undertaking a Certificate IV in Coaching to support Restart's practice framework along with any identified professional development initiatives required for this role
- Ensure services are delivered within the framework of MCM's policies and procedures, legislative requirements, and meet the relevant service standards.
- Perform other duties and responsibilities as directed by Senior Practitioner and Operations Manager.
