

POSITION: Support Coordinator
REPORTS TO: Team Leader – Support Coordination
DATE UPDATED: August 2021

ORGANISATIONAL ENVIRONMENT

MCM (Melbourne City Mission) is a leading community services organisation that innovatively works alongside thousands of Victorians and their communities to overcome barriers experienced through Homelessness, Early Years, Disability, Palliative care, Early Childhood Intervention Services and Education.

With deep experience working with communities experiencing disadvantage, MCM advocates for systemic change, working across all sectors to sustainably disrupt such disadvantage.

Since 1854, MCM has been striving for those experiencing disadvantage to live their life, their way.

JOB CONTEXT

This role sits within the Disability Division, working towards a vision for communities where people have equal rights, choice and opportunity. This position will work closely with other programs across the organisation. You will support this vision by:

- Building individual capacity and enhance choice and control in the provision of high-quality support coordination to people with disability
- Using your knowledge of the local community to create opportunities for increased participation as a local citizen
- Working in a respectful way with people with complex support needs, their families, carers and community
- Understanding the changing disability landscape and implementing support consistent with the aims, principles and standards set by Melbourne City Mission (MCM) Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) and the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS)
- Supporting evidence-based practise through your high level of administrative skills, documenting outcomes for individual NDIS participants, evaluating service delivery and identifying challenges and opportunities in the new environment
- Using your outstanding communication skills to create documents and reports, construct proposals and
- funding submissions and record and analyse data relevant to service delivery

Working with participants of the NDIS shifts the focus of service delivery so that services are built around people and tailored to their unique needs, goals and aspirations, rather than around rigid program eligibility.

JOB PURPOSE

To deliver high quality support coordination to people with a disability and their families. Support Coordination aims to build individual capacity to:

- Manage and implement the customer's plan
- Achieve the outcomes identified in the customer's plan
- Connect the customer with formal, mainstream and funded supports.

JOB OBJECTIVES

The support coordination team aims to facilitate outcomes for people with disability by adhering to the principles of a rights-based approach, delivered with respect and integrity, by professionals with a high standard of customer service.

Support Coordinators work in a way that is reflective and grounded in our organisational values and principles. Through building relationships, we follow best practice approaches and are accountable for the delivery against outcomes identified by clients and customers.

Duties of this role may include but are not limited to the following:

- Support customers to build capacity to coordinate their plans, negotiate appropriate support and services; and connect with community support and mainstream services in addition to disability specific clinical and community support.
- Use local knowledge and sector expertise to increase opportunities for people with disability to be connected to local communities by providing holistic and comprehensive services. This includes assessments, implementing and reviewing plans and goal setting, monitoring progress, advocacy and referrals.
- Deliver services and support with a high level of customer service.
- Provide expert advice and consultation to people with disability, their families and networks on the changing disability service landscape, relevant procedures, practices, guidelines and legislation, including advice regarding customer safeguards, quality expectations, and compliance.
- Support the implementation and review of customer service agreements, outcomes, support plans, programs and services to ensure an appropriate standard of service, supervision, safety and support is provided.
- Operate as required by legislation and departmental standards and exercise the appropriate authorities and legal delegations pursuant to relevant legislation and other specific delegations and functions.
- Under supervision, liaise with community services such as courts, tribunals, policy and mental health services and communicate effectively with a range of external agencies and service providers.
- Assist in the preparation and presentation of comprehensive reports, advice, briefs, assessments and correspondence containing informed comment, viable options for consideration and well-reasoned recommendations.
- Contribute to the maintenance of prescribed registers, reporting systems and client records ensuring the need to adhere to matters of confidentiality and diversity within a sensitive environment.
- Participate in client conferences with other professionals.
- Operate as an effective team member, contributing to team planning, work process improvements and day-to-day administration.
- Be professionally accountable for decisions that impact on customers and staff, made within bounds of Melbourne City Mission policy and with management support.
- Keep accurate and complete records of your work activities in accordance with legislative requirements and MCM's records, information security and privacy policies and requirements. Take reasonable care for your own health and safety and for that of others in the workplace by working in accordance with legislative requirements and the department's occupational health and safety (OHS) policies and procedures.

- Ensure services are delivered within the framework of MCM's policies and procedures, legislative requirements, and meet the relevant service standards.
- Perform other duties and responsibilities, as directed by the Team Leader or delegate.
